

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT PLAN
Project Name	Project SEED
Name	About the Stakeholder	How to Engage the Stakeholder
Team Laforge	Project Managers and developers	As group of developers, team members will have at least one meeting per week. And members should express opinion and show respect to each other on group community channel. All information and detail of development will be updated on GitHub to help members complete work on time.
Dr. Timothy Maciag	Project supervisor, can help and rate the development of project	Providing supports and advices Giving the feedback after every interview Supervising and rating the progress of projects Providing information about resource of server
Local agricultural company	Products supply resource	Making a reasonable price for a large amount of supply (seeds). And the website can help company propagandize themselves.
Planting hobbyist	Target customer	The website provides diverse products and correct planting methods for every type (include climate conditions, soil types and insect prevention. The website can be a convenient and efficient way to make purchase.
Gardeners	Target customer	The website provides diverse products and correct planting methods for every type (include climate conditions, soil types and insect prevention. The website can be a convenient and efficient way to make purchase.